About Me...

I am an Austin-based, full-stack Web Developer. I am experienced with HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, along with the Bootstrap, Angular.js, Express.js, and Backbone.js frameworks, in addition to the Node.js platform. I like to build, I like to share, and I really (really) like to learn.

Experience

February 2016 – present

khmertuktuk.com, khmertuktuk.com/spanish.html
Webmaster/Web Developer

This is a website that I created and maintain for my friend's tuk-tuk service in Siem Reap, Cambodia. It was built from scratch in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. I also built a Spanish-language version.

August 2015 – present

eyehategod.ee, facebook.com/OfficialEyehateGod
Web Developer/Contributor/Administrator

These are the official websites of the New Orleans-based band, I maintain, design, and edit the client-side components of eyehategod.ee, coding in HTML, CSS, and Javascript languages.

May 2013 – present

thekingsofmetal.com/blog
Writer/Administrator

This is a travel blog site, built with WordPress, that I write for and maintain using the WordPress platform to edit and modify the layout and functionality of the content.
